D. DISCUSSION ITEMS

1. WAC Shared Calendar by Laurie Bess and Emily Pearson: Laurie has made a google calendar that will hold dates and times for all WAC and ToW art events. Laurie will be the admin on this and will add names to events so members know when and where they are volunteering to show up. This will include ArtLive!, ribbon cuttings and gallery receptions. Chris will send Laurie dates and times for events. Please let Laurie know if you are having trouble seeing the calendar, as some board members expressed problems with access.
2. ArtLive! Updates and Scheduling: The Artlive! dates are all scheduled and all slots are filled, save for the Thursday July 17th date. Postcards were handed out with all of the dates, times and locations.
3. CDC Sculpture Updates and Scheduling: Jodie Cooper is all set to install his sculpture. He is going to deliver the piece on May 28th and install it on May 29th. There is a ribbon cutting ceremony on May 29th at 6p.m. Mayor Cline will be in attendance. WAC members are invited to attend but it's not mandatory.
4. WHM Depot 50th Anniversary Grand Reopening Event on June 6th. Come see the newly interpreted Windsor History Museum in all of its glory. This is also the kickoff of our ArtLive! program with fiber artist Lucie Cindoruk. It is also the kickoff for the Windsor Farmers Market! Boardwalk Park will be happening.
5. Pelican Sculpture update: After last week's discussion and WAC's wishes to hold on to the pelicans to find an appropriate place for them, Eric informed Laura that Martin Lind will be looking at installing them on the 7th street bridge. WAC's plans to invite Jodie Bliss to look at them to see how viable they are to be installed in an exterior location is on hold.

E. COMMUNICATIONS

1. Communications from Town Board- Ken: This has been an emotionally charged month of a bunch of nothing. Expanding the use of horses and golf carts is a charged discussion. Kids on e-bikes harassing people and running from the police are ruining things for everyone. The long awaited and exciting opening of the completion of the Poudre River Trail is on June 13th from 9-1. Be there and ride to Fort Collins. The police department is changing the ways that they keep records. They will be moving to a streamlined digital platform so get your crimes in while it's analog and tedious. The new rec center feasibility discussion is moving forward. It has been noted that we want one and need one. The town of Severance want in as well, so there are talks to partner on a Windsor/Severance Rec Center. The Poudre River Trail Authority tried to double the fees on Windsor. Being that Windsor had completed its portion of the trail years ago Ken talked them down and there is a reasonable compromise.

2. Communications from Town of Windsor Staff- Chris- Come to the Maryanna Yauk opening reception after you go to the CDC ribbon cutting
3. Communications from WAC

F. ADJOURN: Motion: Laurie Bess, Seconded Marisha Pelnar
MEETING IS ADJOURNED AT 7:11 PM

Respectfully submitted by Laura Browarny, Culture Supervisor
